After installing the program, the ZebraDesigner Mobile icon will appear on your desktop - launch the program by right clicking on it. From the menu that appears, select "Create" In the new window, enter the name of your project. Do not forget to select the category in which you plan to work. Under - "Objects" select the type of file in which you want to save your drawing. Click the "Save" button In the window that appears, select a place to save the drawing and enter a file name. To see other versions of the drawing that were saved in this folder, click on the "Show other saved files" button. Under - "Options" select the sheet size of your drawing and the type of line to display. To load the drawing, click on the "Load" button. Under - "Summary" the type and number of the drawing is displayed. Under - "Parameters" the basic parameters of the drawing are displayed. In the - "Parameters" section additional parameters are displayed. Select the type of the document in the - Parameters section. If you selected "Cover Print", then in the section "Cover Print Style" specify the way the first page is printed (normal or color). For example, if you choose normal printing, the first page will be printed in black ink, and the second page will be black and white. Under -Page Type, specify whether you want to print in color or black and white. If you select black and white, the first page will be printed in black and the second page will be black and white. For color printing, the first page will be printed in color, and the second page will be printed in black and white. To select the print option, press the "Add" button, and then a window with choices will open. The Color option is intended for printing multipage documents, where all pages should be of the same color. At that, you should take into account that the paper format should be A4. If you choose color printing, you will see two tabs in the print window: "Page Options" and "Page Options". In the first tab, under "Color", select "Color". In the "Page Options" tab, select: "Margins". - Keep "Fit to Sheet Width"; "Orientation - Book; "Backing - On Page. If you didn't choose Color in the "Page Setup" window, if you select "Print in 2" as the "Color" option, the result will be a color image. If you select the "Print in 2" color option, the result will be a black and white image.
